

A wide, powerful waterfall cascades down a dark, moss-covered cliff. The water is white and frothy as it falls. In the foreground, a person stands on a dark, rocky shore, their arms raised in a gesture of awe or triumph. The surrounding landscape is lush with green moss and vegetation. The sky is overcast and grey.

TRUST

Trust in others

WE GATHER

In the name of the father and the son and of the holy spirit. Amen.

Response

You must trust in God

1. When times are tough
2. When your belief fails
3. When we walk through darkness

John 10 : 11-18

I am the good shepherd, who is willing to die for the sheep. When the hired man, who is not a shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees a wolf coming, he leaves the sheep and runs away; so the wolf snatches the sheep and scatters them. The hired man runs away because he is only a hired man and does not care about the sheep. I am the good shepherd. As the father knows me, in the same way I know my sheep and they know me. And I am willing to die for them. There are other sheep which belong to me that are not in this sheep pen. I must bring them, too; they will listen to my voice, and they will become one flock with one shepherd. The father loves me because I am willing to give up my life, in order that I may receive it back again.

Activity

Write a prayer asking for trust when we need it most.

Meditation -

Close your eyes and focus on the meaning of the reading.

Go Forth...

We must remember that when times are tough and we are in need, praying for God's help and trust to tackle through.

As we go out we remember how important our faith is and listen to God of Immeasurable as we have a silent prayer asking for our own intentions.
