This plan is drawn up to implement our duty for Disabled Access at St. Anne's School. The plan is written in accordance with the DCSF guidance publication 'Accessible Schools'. It has evolved through consultation with the school community, parents and people with disabilities. Under the Equality Act 2010 schools should have an Accessibility Plan. The Equality Act 2010 replaced all existing equality legislation, including the Disability Discrimination Act. The effect of the law is the same as in the past, meaning that 2schools cannot unlawfully orientation2. According to the Equality Act 2010 a person has a disability if:

- a) He/she has a physical or mental impairment
- b) The impairment has a substantial and long term adverse effect on the ability to carry out normal day to day activities.

The equality duty (Equality Act 2010) extends to all those with protected characteristics. This makes it unlawful for a school to discriminate against a pupil or prospective pupil by treating them less favourably because of their:
